Who We Are

The American Legion was chartered by Congress in 1919 as a patriotic, mutual-help, war-time veterans organization. A community-service organization which now numbers nearly 3 million members -- men and women -- in nearly 15,000 American Legion Posts worldwide. These Posts are organized into 55 Departments -- one each for the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, France, Mexico, and the Philippines.

Will provide a picture of National Headquarters for this space.

The American Legion's National Headquarters is in Indianapolis, Indiana, with additional offices in Washington, D.C. In addition to thousands of volunteers serving in leadership and program implementation capacities in local communities to the Legion's standing national commissions and committees, the national organization has a regular full-time staff of about 300 employees

Will provide a picture of Department Headquarters for this space.

The Department of Georgia Headquarters is in Stockbridge, Ga. There are 241 posts located throughout the state. The state is divided into twelve districts with a District Commander responsible for providing assistance to the posts in his district. The District Commander is assisted by a Senior Vice Commander and Junior Vice Commanders in this mission. District meetings are held for the posts within that district four or more times a year. Thomas M. Brady Post 45 is part of the Ninth District. A number of Post 45 members have served as District Commander and other offices within the Ninth District.

Preamble to the Constitution of The American Legion

For God and Country,

We associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America;

to maintain law and order;

to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism;

to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the great wars;

to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation;

to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses;

to make right the master of might;

to promote peace and goodwill on earth;

to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice,

freedom and democracy;

to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

Directions to Post Home

I have a copy of the directions from 1575 that I mentioned, but would in be possible for someone to click on our physical address and that bring up mapquest or some other map program and let them input their location to get directions?

Calendar of Events

How many months should be displayed? We plan the year with the major events in June or July and I have those calendar pages.

History of Post 45

This history is in a number of our history books at the Post.

*It would be easier for me, if these could be faxed to you. Please send a fax number if this would be okay. I can also provide a picture of the post home, baseball field and fairgrounds.

We sponsor a baseball team, Jr. Sports Shooting Team, send students to Boys State, work with Jr. ROTC Units, etc.

We can do pictures with basic info.

I am looking at other post's websites. Go to www.galegion.org

Click on links, the click on Post websites. HoraceOrrPost29 has a nice website with a number of tabs

We could list our officers

I like the benefits page Post 29 has on their website. This is from National's website and available for us to also use or just make it a link.

I will be in Indianapolis when you read this, but will make sure that my husband can fax the info to you that is listed above.

I hope this content will get the group started. I will be back on Wednesday, but able to check email from my phone while away.

Lynne
